Executive Councilor District One

September 17th, 2004

Excutive Council Report, by Ray Burton

Now that the primary elections are over with we now start into the General Election, November 2nd, 2004. This is truly a year of great decisions on how the direction of America will go in the future.

Voter information is always available at the NH Secretary of States Office at 1-800-562-4300 [ toll free] and 271-1110

Local town and city clerks always have plenty of voter information on ballot questions, candidates, absentee voting, and are always most happy to assist voters in voting.

The Help America Vote Act, known as HAVA, was passed by the US Congress with with the specific resources of money and assistance to towns and cities. Orville " Bud" Fitch at the NH Attorney General's office is available to responed to inquiries about assistance. Bud is most helpfull and would welcome your inquiry at 1-866-868-3703 [ toll free ] and always know my office is at your service at 747-3662 and 271-3632
